Needs of Organizations Assisting Flood Victims

Crisis Center needs food. Their top 10 needed items are: Canned Fruit, Canned Vegetables, Canned Meat, Canned Soup, Pasta, Jelly or Jam, Toilet Paper, Rice, Peanut Butter, and Juice. Diapers and baby wipes are also frequently requested.

Persons and faith communities can donate clothing and household items to Goodwill or Crowded Closet in the name of the Crisis Center, and they will give the Crisis Center more vouchers for clothing and household items to distribute to persons in need.

Thank You! Thank You!

Our sincerest gratitude to everyone who contributed to last weekend's special collection for the 2008 Iowa flood victims. Our collection netted over $5,000. If you did not have a chance to donate last weekend, contributions are still being accepted. We also thank everyone who has donated food, labor or other resources to the flood victims.

Please contact the church office, 337-4957, if you need help due to the flood.

We pray that the Holy Spirit may guide government and religious leaders in their decisions affecting the protection of all human life.

Why Catholic in the fall:

Can you name and explain the cardinal virtues, the theological virtues, the gifts of the Holy Spirit, the fruits of the Holy Spirit? These are all part of our Catholic faith. Join a Why Catholic group this fall or begin one of your own. Virtues are the topic for session four. Call Sister Laura 338-0939 for information.

CZECH THIS OUT!

St. Wenceslaus Church tidbit:

In 1904 The Rev. Aloys Cihal arrived at St. Wenceslaus. He made many improvements during his time - most notably the installation of the pipe organ. The pews were numbered and parishioners had to pay a pew rental fee of $4 - $6 a year. This was considered a necessary obligation for a parishioner to sit in his numbered pew. This practice continued until at least the 1920's/1930's.

But we won't have numbered seating at our Parish Czech dinner on September 28!

Lawnmowers for this Week-Team 6

Jason Warren, Kent Kline and Paul Wilson

It's the Berries

Again this summer Tom Kane is generously donating the proceeds from his blueberry farm. Checks may be made out to "Right to Life" or St. Wenceslaus. Pick the berries at the former Bocks Berry Farm (5888 Sand Road). Suggested donation $2.00 per pound. (Tom said the road is open even though the sign says it is closed.)

Volunteers Wanted - Block Party, 2008 Wednesday, September 10.

Contact Margaret Post, 354-0585, or Pastor Jan 338-0944, at Zion Lutheran to get involved. This is a great opportunity to meet our neighbors. Please begin to save items for the popular Rummage Sale: household and other items are welcome, but note that the only clothing that will be sold at the rummage sales is coats and sweaters.

New Member Registration Form

Please take a moment to introduce yourself to us. Fill in the information below and drop it in the collection basket or mail it to our office. Welcome to our parish family.

Facts Regarding the Year of St. Paul

The letters, or epistles, of St. Paul make up one-third of the New Testament.

Latin Mass

Beginning Sunday, August 3, St. Wenceslaus will serve as a host parish for the Tridentine Latin Mass. This Mass will be celebrated at 1:30 PM here at St. Wenceslaus with Father Phillips and Father Appel sharing the responsibilities of celebrant.

As noted in the Catholic Messenger dated July 3 concerning the pope's vestments, the Mass vestments symbolize a spiritual transformation of the person wearing the clothes.... "he does it to put on the new clothes of Christ." Here is a list of the vestments traditionally worn in the Tridentine Latin Mass.

The Mass Vestments

The Amice: A square of white linen wrapped around the neck and covering the shoulders. In the Middle Ages the Amice was worn as a hood to protect the head in cold churches. The Amice symbolizes the "helmet of salvation" i.e., the virtue of hope (1 Thess. 5, 8), that helps the priest to overcome the attacks of Satan.

The Alb: A long, white linen garment reaching to the feet. The Alb symbolizes the innocence and purity that should adorn the soul of the priest who ascends the altar.

The Cincture: The cord used as a belt to gird the Alb. It symbolizes the virtues of chastity and continence required of the priest.

The Maniple: An ornamental vestment of colored silk or damask worn over the left forearm. Originally this was a handkerchief carried in the left hand or thrown over the left arm. It symbolizes the labor and hardship the priest must expect in his apostolate.

The Stole: Roman magistrates wore a long scarf when engaged in their official duties, just as our judges wear a court gown. Whenever a priest celebrates Mass or administers the Sacraments, he wears the Stole as a sign that he is occupied with an official priestly duty. When placing the Stole about his neck, in vesting for Mass, the priest begs God to give him on the last day the "garment of immortality" that was forfeited by our sinful first parents.

The Chasuble: The outer vestment put on over the others. Originally this was a full bell-shaped garment reaching almost to the feet all the way round. During the 18th and 19th centuries the Chasuble was shortened and stiffened. Today there is a return to the historical nicely draping Chasubles. The Chasuble symbolizes the virtue of charity, and the yoke of unselfish service for the Lord.
